

Privacy Notice (How we use personal information on get information about schools - GIAS)

The categories of governance information that we process include:

- personal identifiers, contacts and characteristics (such as name, date of birth, contact details (inc emails) and postcode)
- governance details (such as role, start and end dates and governor ID)

Why we collect and use governance information

The personal data collected is essential, in order for the school to fulfil their official functions and meet legal requirements.

We collect and use governance information, for the following purposes:

- Comply with the law regarding Section 72 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006
- Comply with the statutory requirements for recording governance within the Academies Financial Handbook, Funding Agreement, Articles of Association and Get Information About Schools on the DfE database
- Provide appropriate statutory advice and guidance
- Deliver governor advice, guidance, information and training

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the legal bases we rely on for processing personal information for general purposes are:

- We need to comply with a legal obligation (see above)
- We provide governor advice, guidance, information and training

All academy trusts, under the Academies Financial Handbook have a legal duty to provide the governance information as detailed above.

Collecting governance information

We collect personal information via governor/trustee contact forms (where applicable)

Governance data is essential for the school's operational use. Whilst the majority of personal information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it may be requested on a voluntary basis. In

How Government uses your data

The governance data that we lawfully share with the DfE via GIAS:

- will increase the transparency of governance arrangements
- will enable maintained schools and academy trusts and the department to identify more quickly and accurately individuals who are involved in governance and who govern in more than one context
- allows the department to be able to uniquely identify an individual and in a small number of cases conduct checks to confirm their suitability for this important and influential role

Data collection requirements

To find out more about the requirements placed on us by the Department for Education including the data that we share with them, go to <https://www.gov.uk/government/news/national-database-of-governors>

Note: Some of these personal data items are not publically available and are encrypted within the GIAS system. Access is restricted to a small number of DfE staff who need to see it in order to fulfil their official duties. The information is for internal purposes only and not shared beyond the department, unless the law allows it.

How to find out what personal information DfE hold about you

Under the terms of the Data Protection Act 2018, you're entitled to ask the Department:

- if they are processing your personal data
- for a description of the data they hold about you
- the reasons they're holding it and any recipient it may be disclosed to
- for a copy of your personal data and any details of its source

If you want to see the personal data held about you by the Department, you should make a 'subject access request'. Further information on how to do this can be found within the Department's personal information charter that is published at the address below:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/department-for-education/about/personal-information-charter>

To contact DfE: <https://www.gov.uk/contact-dfe>
